

COLLECT

Almighty God,
you show to those who are in error
the light of your truth,
that they may return to the way of
righteousness:
grant to all those who are admitted
into the fellowship of Christ's religion,
that they may reject those things that
are contrary to their profession,
and follow all such things as are
agreeable to the same;
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING Genesis 12:1-4a

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him.

PSALM Psalm 121

R *My help comes from the Lord,
[the maker of heaven and earth].*

I lift up my eyes to the hills;
from where is my help to come?
My help comes from the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth. R

He will not let your foot be moved
and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.

Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep. R

The Lord himself watches over you;
the Lord is your shade at your right
hand,
so that the sun shall not strike you by
day,
nor the moon by night. R

The Lord shall preserve you from all evil;

it is he who shall keep you safe.
The Lord shall watch over your going out
and your coming in,
from this time forth for evermore. R

SECOND READING

Romans 4:1-5. 13-17

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

What are we to say was gained by Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. For what does the scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness." Now to one who works, wages are not reckoned as a gift but as something due. But to one who without works trusts him who justifies the ungodly, such faith is reckoned as righteousness. For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations") – Abraham believed in the presence of the God who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

GOSPEL John 3:1-17

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

There was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God." Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above." Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

POST COMMUNION

Almighty God,
you see that we have no power of
ourselves to help ourselves:
keep us both outwardly in our bodies,
and inwardly in our souls;
that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to
the body,
and from all evil thoughts
which may assault and hurt the soul;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lent observances

This year's Churches Together Lent Group are following the book: 'O God, Why?' by Gerard Hughes SJ. We meet weekly on Tuesdays, 2.00-3.30pm in the Cuthbert Room of the Catholic Church Hall. Please note that, because of the Lent Group, there will not be 'Coffee and Chat' on Tuesday afternoons during Lent.

Churches Together Lent Lunches take place each Wednesday through to 25th March at 12.15pm in the Parish Church Hall. Thank you to those of you who made soup and helped serve for Greyfriars Church for the last 2 weeks. Donations this year will go to Ambulances4Ukraine.

World Day of Prayer Friday 6th March 2pm, Catholic Church Hall. Do join us for this lovely ecumenical and global service. All are welcome.

Joint Vestry The next meeting will be held in Greyfriars House on Thursday 12th March at 6.00pm

Easter Sunday Choir we are putting together a choir for our Easter Sunday service. Please let Revd Alison know if you would be interested in joining this. Music and rehearsals can then be arranged.

New hymn books From today, thanks to a generous donation and with Vestry approval, we will be using new hymn and service books. These will give us broader seasonal variations and hymn choices, without losing any of our old favourites!

Mothering Sunday Afternoon Tea We will be offering a Mother's Day Afternoon Tea in Greyfriars House, on Sunday 15th March at 2pm or 3.30pm, £12 per person. Booking is essential, tickets from Revd Alison at Greyfriars House or Chris Moody in Church, or email kirkgatepriest@gmail.com or greyfriarshousebookings@gmail.com
Please note that refreshments after the service will be in church on this day.

Diocesan Synod takes place on Saturday 7th March in the Howard Centre, Kilmarnock. Synod begins with the Eucharist at Holy Trinity, Kilmarnock at 10am. The Eucharist is open to all, and the proceedings of the Synod are open to communicant members of the Scottish Episcopal Church who are resident in the Diocese. Synod is attended by Clergy and the Lay Representative from each charge. If you wish to attend Synod as a visitor, please contact diocesansecretary@glasgow.anglican.org

Help needed if anyone would be willing to go on the rota to steward on occasional Sunday mornings it would be much appreciated. Please speak to Revd Alison for more information. Please also sign up for the coffee rota if you are able to so that we are able to share the load more widely.

A retreat to Iona Revd Dr Elizabeth Breakey is organising a retreat to Iona for people within the Galloway Region. It is on 3-10 October 2026, and will cost £680 for a twin room, £1,040 for a single, full board. If you're interested, see the poster on the noticeboard, or speak to Revd Alison.

Greyfriars House Please direct enquiries about house bookings to Chris Moody - greyfriarshousebookings@gmail.com

Neurodivergent and Disability Friendly Church

This is something that we seek to be and to do better. There is a quiet area in the north transept for those who would value a quiet space during worship. If there are other ways, we can help you worship, please speak to Revd Alison or one of the stewards
