Day of Prayer for the people of the Middle East

Churches across the Scottish Episcopal Church are invited to open their doors as places of prayer, peace, and welcome. At a time of deep suffering and uncertainty in the Middle East, we are called to gather, individually and together, to hold before God the needs of all who are affected by conflict.

Greyfriars Church 11am-4pm Tues 31st March

St Mary's Church 10am-12noon Wed 1st April

Come and pray together – for a few minutes or longer.

The Bishop's Lent Appeal This year is in support of the "Daisy Project" supporting women and children to heal from domestic abuse. If you would like to give to it there are leaflets available with details on it.
