Notices and dates for diaries

Greyfriars Church open to visitors Having secured the Sacristy and Vestry doors with locks, we are now opening the church to visitors during the week. It is hoped we will still have stewards on duty on Thursday afternoons from 2-4pm to share something of our history with those who come, so please do sign up for that if you are able to.

Ruthwell Cross Visit Dr Jo Chapman Campbell will give a talk at the Ruthwell Cross on Tuesday 23rd June at 11am. This will give us chance to delve further into its history and look in person at the carvings as Jo explains them to us. If you would like to come along please let Revd Alison know so that lifts can be shared.

Bible Study Bishop Gordon is leading a fortnightly Bible study in Greyfriars House, 10.30 to 12.00. The next one is on Fri 12th June. If you would like to join please speak to Gordon, Chris or Sandra.

Grass cutting are you able to help out with grass cutting over the summer on a rota basis? An electric mower and strimmer with charged batteries can be provided. Please sign up if you are able to help with this important part of caring for our building and grounds.

Key inventory if you have a key for Greyfriars Church or House and are not a Vestry Member or Steward could you please let Simon know as we need to account for our keys for insurance purposes.

Stewartry Food Bank the next collection will be Tuesday, 9th June. Items can be left in the church foyer in advance of this. Monetary donations can also be sent via Doreen Blackadder.

Joint Vestry following agreement by both Vestries, we are beginning a process of merging our two vestries into one so that our structure of governance is made secure for future years. What this means is that some of the roles and responsibilities can be shared, freeing up people to support the life of the church in different ways. There is a very specific process to follow for this, leading up to our AGMs in November when we will need to agree a new joint constitution and form a new merged vestry. We will produce a schedule of what happens when so that everyone is aware of the process that we are going through. Please speak to Revd Alison if you have any concerns or questions.
