Coffee after Church the rota is on the noticeboard. Please put your name down if you feel able to help with this important part of our church fellowship.

Joint Vestry following agreement by both Vestries, we have begun the process of merging our two vestries into one. What this means is that some of the roles and responsibilities can be shared, freeing up people to support the life of the church in different ways. At the AGM in November will need to agree a new joint constitution and form the new merged vestry. A letter detailing the process, together with a timescale will follow.

Gala Week Gatehouse of Fleet St Mary's Church are putting on a programme of events for Gala Week. Sunday 26th July 6pm, Songs of Praise in the riverside garden by St Mary's Church.
